Media Alert

For TOMORROW Wednesday 8 August 2007

It's Showtime for the Royal Children's Hospital

Tomorrow will be the brightest day of the week for sick kids at the Royal Children's Hospital when they make their special annual visit to the Ekka Showgrounds, a day before the show opens to the public.

WHAT: Royal Children's Hospital visits the Ekka

WHEN: 10am, Wednesday 8 August

WHERE: Animal Boulevard and RACQ Insurance Animal Nursery, RNA Showgrounds, Bowen Hills

Cupcakes, fairy floss, milk and juice are on the menu as well as some fabulous Ekka fun – all the baby animals in the Animal Boulevard, Fairies from Fairy Queen Productions will be spreading some fairy magic, magicians, carousel girl and the Horseman from Susan River.

And of course we have plenty of Showbags for the kids to take the Show experience away with them.

The Royal Children's Hospital visit to the Ekka is a tradition that started four years ago and always causes much excitement for both the kids and the RNA staff alike.
