THE TALENT IS TOO GOOD!

Nova 106.9 has sifted through a record amount of entries and have come up with 15 Brisbane schools to play in the Rock School Finals at Ekka 2007.

The best entries from Brisbane's Central, South, East, West and North were selected by a judging panel including Powderfingers' Darren Middleton, The Sunday Mail's Ritchie Yorke and Nova's Music Director Kate Casey in what turn out to be the most competitive year since the annual competition started in 2005.

The 15 schools will rock off on Sunday 12 August at The EKKA in Nova Park where the judges will determine the Top 5 bands as decided by the judges, based on their live performances.

Then it is over to the Brisbane public to vote for their favourite band. Nova 106.9 will simulcast the 5 bands live from 7pm Thursday 16 August during the Nova 19's with Michelle & Smallzy.

The winning band will walk away with the $10,000, get to perform their own set opening for Expatriate and The Butterfly Effect at Nova Live & Loud plus be invited back for an encore performance at Suncorp Stadium for the Bronco's last game.

To hear the entries and find out more about the finalists, listen to Michelle and Smallsy from the Nova 19's this week from 7pm. More details about the Top 15 schools attached.
